Zoran Mojsilov – Sculptor:

Writing/Essay/Journal

Sculptor Zoran Mojsilov says, “Maybe some people don’t like Greek food or don’t like my art. That doesn’t mean it is good or bad, it’s just their taste.” How important is it for people to like or appreciate your art? How do you measure the quality of your art? How do you determine if your art is good? What political implications are present in each form of art? How would you use each form of art to express a message? What message would it be?

Activity

Being a sculptor, Mojsilov says that he likes to challenge the materials physically. He says it is kind of like being a bully. Create art that physically challenges the materials you are using. Push the materials to their limits. What does this look like?
