

Public Meetings Policy

Open meetings.

All meetings of the TPT Board of Trustees and the TPT Community Advisory Board including their committees, during which official TPT business is being conducted, will be open to the public preceded by a reasonable notice on TPT's website to the public at least one week in advance, except in the event of an emergency. The notice shall state the dates and times of the meetings. Members of the public can observe these meetings virtually.

Closed Sessions.

Portions of the meetings or entire meetings may be closed to consider matters relating to individual employees, proprietary information, litigation and other matters requiring confidential advice of counsel, commercial or financial information obtained from a person on a privileged or confidential basis, or the purchase of property or services whenever premature exposure of such purchase would compromise the business interests of TPT.

Notice of closed meetings will be made in the same manner as all open meeting notifications. If a meeting is closed to the public for any permissible reason, a written statement containing an explanation of the reasons for closing the meeting will be made publicly available on TPT's website within a reasonable period of time, afterwards.

No Pre-Registration Required.

Persons who desire to attend TPT meetings will not be required to register or provide information in order to attend a meeting. However, observers may need to provide an email address to allow TPT to provide the meeting link.

Notification of Meetings.

Twin Cities Public Television Board of Trustees, Board Committees, and the TPT Community Advisory Board will meet on the dates and times indicated below. The public may attend virtually to observe. Portions of the meetings may be closed to the public in order to consider personnel, proprietary, confidential or privileged matters.

Note that the meeting schedule is subject to change. Please confirm meeting dates and times. For information about the meeting schedule please call (651) 229-1330.
